

Financial Management 15 ECTS

AMMATTIOPINNOT

04TAL050 Financial Management 15 op

Learning objectives

Student

- is able to explain the role of management accounting in the management process
- is able to examine the profitability of companies
- is able to analyze the performance of companies through the financial ratios
- is able to set prices on products and to produce budgets
- is able to use calculations in decision making
- is able to find the sources of finance and explain the significance of capital markets to a company
- is able to manage working capital
- is able to apply the investment appraisal methods in decision making
- is able to use the stock valuation methods
- is able to use the methods of international payments
- is able to hedge against financial risks
- is able to draw up financial forecasts and cash flow calculations
- is able to draw up financial forecasts
- is able to solve managerial and financial problems at strategic level with the help of real life cases and professional sufficient tools